

“Talking About Race for Parents”

Hosted by PS 39's Diversity & Inclusion Committee and sponsored by the PS 39 Parent Association, this two-hour workshop will provide participants with:

- A deeper knowledge of the history and definition of race and racism
- An enhanced understanding of how race and racism affect children and how children see race
- Skills for approaching age-appropriate conversations using a racial equity lens

---

Thursday, January 17th

PS 39, Room 103

|                 |                       |
|-----------------|-----------------------|
| Arrival  | 6:00 – 6:30 PM |
| Workshop | 6:30 – 8:30 PM |

A light dinner will be provided for participants and children in Rm 103 which will include gluten free & vegetarian options. Just before the workshop begins, children can take their dinners down to the cafeteria for childcare and activities.

---

A variety of ticket options are available to ensure all who want to attend this important training can attend.

RESERVE YOUR SPOT BY:

CREDIT CARD

Purchasing a ticket at the price you are most comfortable with and selecting the RSVP ticket for childcare.

www.squareup.com/store/ps39-parent-association

PAY-WHAT-YOU-CAN AT THE DOOR

Email diversity@ps39.org to reserve your spot and RSVP for childcare.

This workshop will be facilitated by the Center for Racial Justice in Education.

www.centerracialjustice.org